CLEANING TECHNOLOGIES GROUP LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE AND LOGO FOR SANICORE SYSTEMS, EXPANDING REACH INTO FOOD & BEVERAGE INDUSTRY

Cincinnati, OH – June 5, 2025

Cleaning Technologies Group (CTG), a leading provider of industrial parts cleaning and surface preparation technologies, is proud to announce the launch of a new website and refreshed logo for Sanicore Systems, a division dedicated to serving the Food & Beverage industry.

The launch reflects CTG's continued investment in expanding its cleaning capabilities and strengthening its presence in new and growing markets. Sanicore Systems has been focused on delivering high-performance cleaning equipment and solutions tailored to the unique hygiene and compliance requirements of food and beverage processing facilities.

Over the past five years, CTG has partnered with Unitech Washing Systems of the UK to offer robust sales and service support across the United States. Building on this collaboration, CTG is now accelerating brand awareness for Sanicore Systems through an updated digital platform.

The new website features:

- A modern, responsive design optimized for all devices
- Intuitive navigation for users to explore Sanicore's full line of cleaning equipment and accessories
- In-depth information on industrial applications, cleaning systems, and aftermarket services.

"We're excited to introduce a digital presence that reflects Sanicore's mission and capability," said Jeff Mills, Vice President of Sales & Marketing at Ransohoff. "This launch supports our broader strategy to grow into new markets and provide world-class cleaning solutions to food and beverage manufacturers."

The new branding and online experience reinforce CTG's position as a global leader in industrial cleaning technologies and demonstrate its commitment to innovation and customer support.
